Industry talk on " Industry 4.0 and beyond - are we future ready? "

Department of Computer Applications in collaboration with IIPCell, B. P. Poddar Institute of Management and Technology hosted an industry talk on " Industry 4.0 and beyond - are we future ready? ". Mr. Arabinda Bhar, Senior Solutions Manager, IBM India Pvt. Ltd took a one hour session for the students of MCA. The session was very information- rich and interactive as he highlighted the historical significance of industrial revolution starting from 1764 till the recent advancements i.e industrial revolution 4.0. He also emphasised on the the different genres of Computer advancements from Internet, to Data Analytics, Machine Learning, IoT and Quantum Computing in current times. He also provided a guideline for the students and emphasised on the career opportunities where they can carve a niche for themselves.