

5 day global web-workshop on Recent Trends in IoT with Cloud

Department of Information Technology organized a 5 day global web-workshop on Recent Trends in IoT with Cloud, during 23rd June-27th June 2020. The key area of the workshop was Industrial Internet of Things, Smart device Security, Containerization in distributed computing, Cloud native principles, modern data platform in cloud, IoT device demonstration and hands - on, Live project in IoT-Cloud Connectivity etc. Speakers from organizations of global and national repute in various domains exchanged their thoughts in the areas of present trends in IoT with Cloud. More than 550 active participants attended the event across the globe. The workshop was organised in google meet platform alongwith youtube broadcast simultaneously in an interactive way. Live project was demonstrated by the speakers with live execution by the participants.